

PROGRAM OF STUDY

AV Installation Technician Certificate of Proficiency

Laney College

TOP Code: 0000.00

Program Control Number:

AV installation skills for entry level jobs: Video production and systems, audio production and systems, AV essentials including rack building and cabling, control and connectivity, signal flow, troubleshooting, IP connectivity and customer relations

Career Opportunities in

Career opportunities are available in schools and universities, government, the military, corporations, healthcare, legal, retail, museums, churches, sports arenas, entertainment, and transportation. All these organizations require AV technicians, to install, maintain, repair and troubleshoot their facilities. Current AV technicians can also advance in their field, finding employment as audiovisual managers or audiovisual specialists.

Required Courses

MEDIA 104	Beginning Digital Video Production	3
MEDIA 111	Basic Audio Production	3
MEDIA 115	Media-based Computing: iLife and Mac OS X	3
MEDIA 121	Event Videography: Sports Video Production	3
MEDIA 160	AudioVisual Essentials I	2
MEDIA 161	AudioVisual Essentials II	2

Total Units

16

PID 293