1. Can we recommend that all departments write SLOs for half of their courses by the start of Fall 2007 and for all of their courses by the start of Spring 2008? (SLOs should appear in course syllabi and maybe on department websites.) Can we take this to the Faculty Senate? Other ideas?
2. Program outcomes - can we practice giving workshops on developing these? (Model after the Ruth Stiehl workshop?) How important is it to “map” the program first?
3. Assessment of outcomes:
Has anyone on the committee started to assess outcomes?
Can we agree to try assessing outcomes in our classes?
Assessment plans
Assessment reports
4. Institution-wide outcomes – come up with strategies
5. Remaining SLOs for our committee members
