

Learning Assessment Committee
Agenda for Friday, December 11, 2009
1:00-2:30 pm in T-750

Members: Vina Cera, Cheli Fossum, Evelyn Lord, Ann McMurdo, Marco Menendez, David Mitchell, Newin Orante, Linda Sanford, Karolyn van Putten, Tina Vasconcellos, Elnora Webb, Wandra Williams, Kathy Williamson

1. Meeting schedule for next semester:

Many of the 2nd Fridays fall on holidays.

Plan: more assessment work sessions, more TaskStream training, fewer LAC meetings

I will need some help from LAC members for the trainings.

Semester starts: Jan 21

Jan 22 – work session ?

Early February – work session (Feb. 12 is a holiday)

Feb 26

March 12

March 26 (March 25 is professional day)

April 23 (April 9 is during spring break)

May 21

Assessment wrap-up work sessions – first week in June (2 days?)

2. Review of draft mission statements (see next page)

3. Assessment Planning Retreat – for those interested

(Cheli, Karolyn, Elnora, deans, some LAC members)

Thursday, Dec. 17, 8:30 am – 11:30 am, off campus (Elnora's place)

Purpose – look over WASC assessment retreat team reports and plan how and when to implement actions.

4. Updates

Student Services progress (Newin)

LAC Assessment work sessions for next semester

Laney College Draft Revised Mission Statements

12-9-09

Draft #1

Laney College, located in Oakland, California, is a diverse, urban community college committed to student learning. Our learner-centered college creates quality transfer and career-technical education, supported by the development of foundation skills and the engagement of community partners. These educational opportunities inspire global awareness and respond to the cultural, economic, social, and workforce development needs of the greater Bay Area.

Draft #2

Laney College, located in downtown Oakland, California, is a diverse, urban community college committed to student learning. Our learner-centered college provides quality transfer and career-technical education, foundations skills and support services. These educational opportunities respond to the cultural, economic, social, and workforce needs of the greater Bay Area, increasing community partnerships and global awareness.