

Carpentry

Laney College

Outcome	Institutional Outcomes	Assessment Method
1. Communicate and calculate Students will communicate effectively in the technical language of the Carpentry/Construction Trades, including written, verbal and mathematical computation skills.		Evaluation of assignments.
2. Core skills Students will develop a foundation of core skills necessary to operate power tools and equipment used to build, repair and remodel homes to current code requirements.		Evaluation of assignments.
3. Knowledge Students will analyze building components in order to determine the proper execution of construction or repair.		Evaluation of assignments.
4. Safety Students will focus on health and safety issues that impact the worker, homeowner, and the environment.		Evaluation of assignments.