

These are some of the instructor's feedback codes:

- A incorrect naming of author
 - T incorrect naming of the title of a text
 - I4T Use italics for titles.
 - W4P Use "who" for people, not "that".
 - QF quotation format needs repair
 - 2W two words
 - # a 'countable' language error, singular/plural nouns and verbs that need to match or 'agree'.
 - FP 'Funky Punctuation' – check out the document on the Documents and Links page
 - VT verb-tense error
 - CBC Usually, use commas between clauses.
 - TE the "there expletive" – Try to avoid this phrasing: There are many times that we try to ...
– Instead, simply say it like this: Many times we try...
 - RTP Refine this phrasing – say it another way.
 - AMAE Ask me about edits – or ask a classmate, or a tutor, or a super-fluent friend.
- Squiggly underlining -- signifies language that is unclear or inaccurate.
- Solid underlining -- signifies language that is well phrased or especially meaningful.
- Check-marks in the margin -- also signify strong claims or effective articulation of ideas.
- Exclamation marks – signify extra-important ideas and/or exciting passages.