

Laney College Distance Education Newsletter

SEPTEMBER 5, 2017

VOLUME #4

Canvas News

Significant progress was made over the summer in regards to the transition to Canvas. Here is a summary of the recent developments:

- There has been a change in the Moodle-Canvas transition timeline. Because we can no longer support our current version of Moodle, we will complete the transition to Canvas by Fall 2018.
- The Canvas website can be found at learn.peralta.edu. The website will not change each semester as it did for Moodle.
- Peralta has subscribed to 24/7 phone support for Canvas. The phone number for Laney Canvas support is (844) 600-4955.
- Robust student and faculty resources for learning Canvas have been created. To access the faculty resources, visit: <https://learn.peralta.edu/courses/419>; to access the student resources, visit: <https://learn.peralta.edu/courses/442>.

Fall Canvas Training

- Faculty can now log in to Canvas to prepare courses for spring. For log in instructions, see: <https://learn.peralta.edu/courses/419/pages/how-to-log-in-to-canvas>
- DE Coordinators and Canvas Trainers will be holding regular Canvas support drop-in office hours in the TTLC (T-513). In order to view the TTLC calendar and training times, please accept the email invitation to view the TTLC calendar in Outlook.
- Instructional Designer Kevin Kelly will lead Canvas training workshops at the four colleges this semester. He will be offering two half-day workshops at Laney on September 15th in F170C from 9am-12pm and 1pm-4pm. Stay tuned for details on how to sign up.

Moodle News

- Moodle will continue to operate as usual until Fall 2018. For faculty who need Moodle support, please contact DE Coordinator, Chelsea Cohen ccohen@peralta.edu
- Students who are using Moodle should continue to direct their questions and concerns to online@peralta.edu.

Interested in Getting Your Online Teaching Certificate in Three Months?

@ONE's Online Education Standards & Practices (OESP) begins on September 25th and runs for 12 weeks. Participants who complete OESP receive an @ONE Online Teaching Certificate of Completion, and participants who go on to have their OESP ePortfolio reviewed are eligible for the @ONE Online Teaching Certificate of Achievement. For enrollment information, visit: <http://www.onefortraining.org/node/926>.

Questions?
Contact DE
Coordinator
Chelsea Cohen,
ccohen@peralta.edu