

CBCF Congressional Internship Program

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Established in 1986, the CBCF Congressional Internship Program answered the call to help diversify our democracy by increasing the pool of talented public servants. This intensive nine-week summer program offers the opportunity for college students from across the nation to learn about the legislative process, leadership and careers in the policy making process. Interns work in CBC member offices, attend professional development events, and participate in leadership development projects. The program prepares young people to become informed decision makers and influential leaders who shape our world. This program is offered every summer.

Benefits

- Interns will receive a $3,000 stipend
- Housing at a local university (all expenses covered)
- Interns may be eligible to receive academic credit at their college or university for participating in the program

Qualifications

- U.S. citizen or permit to work in the U.S.
- Currently or recently (within the past 12 months) enrolled in college full-time when applying for program
- Have a minimum GPA of 2.5 on a 4.0 scale
- Be at least a college sophomore by the internship start date
- Demonstrated interest in public service, governance, and policy-making process
