

It has been my pleasure to have been a teacher at Laney for many years in the Biology Department. I presently teach Introductory Biology and Medical Terminology I and II as fully online classes

Taking online classes gives the opportunity of allowing classwork to be done in a much more flexible manner, but it does require a higher level of discipline.