

How to get started

1

Apply for Admission

Welcome Center: A101
Admissions & Records: A109

www.laney.peralta.edu

2

Complete Assessment & Orientation

Assessment Center: A101

3

See Our Counselor

Carolyn Cornelius
cacornelius@peralta.edu
(510) 409-7693
Room T403

4

Enroll in Classes

Welcome Center: A101

www.laney.peralta.edu

5

Get Photo ID

Room A102
www.peralta.edu

6

Pay Your Fees

Cashier
Financial Aid:
2nd Floor
Admin Bldg.
(Laney Tower)

Laney Educational/After-School Pathways (LEAP)

- ✓ Academic counseling
- ✓ Career planning
- ✓ Internship opportunities
- ✓ Free textbooks
- ✓ Campus tutoring opportunities
- ✓ Job fairs

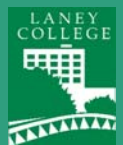

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

- Marie Wilson, (510) 464-3163, dwilson@peralta.edu
- Dean Linda Sanford, (510) 464-3233, lsanford@peralta.edu

Funded through the Peralta After-School Pathways Initiative [PAPI]
Photos courtesy of OASES (Oakland Asian Students Educational Services)

Looking for work in an after-school program?

The classes you will need...

Upon completion of these courses, you will receive a Certificate of Proficiency that prepares you for work in an after-school or youth development program. The certificate program consists of 12-14 course units.

SPRING 2010 CLASSES AT LANEY COLLEGE

Learning Resources 20 • Intro to Youth Development [3 units]
Thursday 6:00-9:00 p.m. Instructor: Blackburn (Code 21754)

Learning Resources 30 • Introduction to Tutoring [1 unit]
Wednesday 10:00 a.m.-noon, begins Feb. 3
Instructor: Cook (Code 21753)
[also offered Fri 1:00-3:00 p.m., beginning Feb. 5, Code 20672]

Health 1 • Exploring Health Issues [3 units]
Tue/Thu 10:30 a.m.-noon Instructor: Chung (Code 21750)
or

Health 20 • Health and Wellness: Personal Change [1 unit]
Wednesday 11:00 a.m.-noon Instructor: Thadani (Code 24715)

English 201 A/B • Preparation for Composition and Reading [4 units]
Mon/Wed 1:00-3:00 p.m. Instructor: Fuller (Code 21751 or 21752)

Math 253 • Fundamentals of Pre-Algebra [3 units]
Tue/Thu 1:00-2:30 p.m. Instructor: Ta (Code 21756)
or

Math 250 • Arithmetic [3 units]
Tue/Thu 1:00-2:30 p.m. Instructor: Liang (Code 21755)

These courses also provide you with a solid foundation to continue your college education and enter training programs leading to a teaching certificate, a job as an instructional aide or a career in human services. Courses count toward the AA degree and are transferable to a four-year college.

... Take the LEAP today

The Laney Educational/After-School Pathways (LEAP) prepares you for work in after-school or youth development programs. It includes access to financial aid, counseling services, job fairs and job placement assistance to help you find employment in an after-school program. LEAP courses include:

- Introduction to Youth Development: Fundamentals of youth development theory and practice. [3 units]
- Introduction to Tutoring: Tutoring skills that prepare you to tutor school-age children or become a paid tutor at Laney College. [1 unit]
- Health 1: Provides a broad background and understanding of current problems related to individual and community health. [3 units] or
Health 20: Health and Wellness: Personal Change. [1 unit]
- Math 253: Fundamentals of pre-algebra. [3 units] or
Math 250: Arithmetic. [3 units]
- English 201 A/B: Preparation for composition and reading. [4 units]

