

Assessment Hour

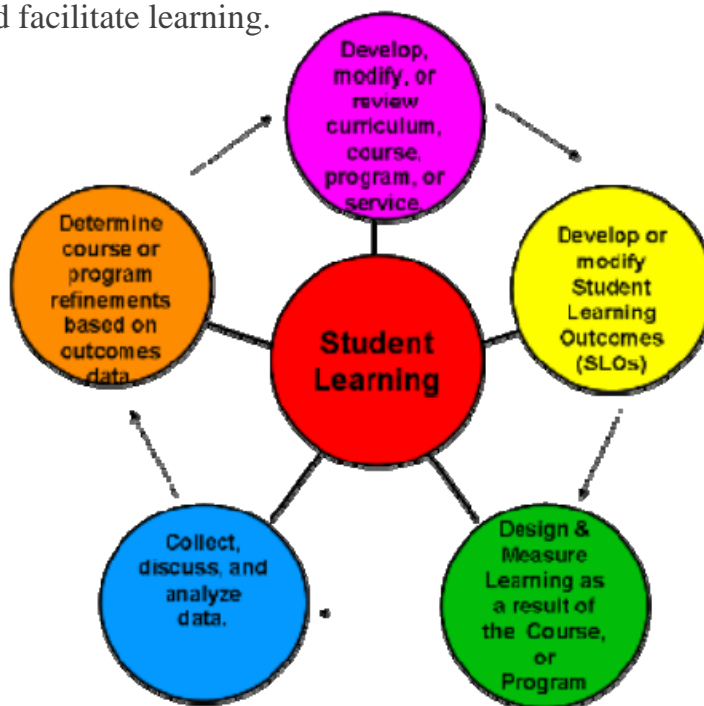

Continues . . .

Becoming a learner-centered college

A series of lunchtime professional development opportunities presented by the Learning Assessment Committee (LAC), with interactive experiences and collegial dialogue focused on improving how we teach and facilitate learning.

Graphic image below courtesy of Berkeley City College

Tuesday, February 8, 2011

Anne Agard, Laney ESL Faculty, will be our guest presenter on Reading (essential for student success):

- How to Make Course Reading More Accessible to Students Who Don't Read Well or Who Don't Like to Read
- How to Assess Reading Comprehension in Learner-Centered Ways

Come have lunch on us and practice using strategies that will help your students succeed!

Location: T-450 Faculty Lounge

Time: 12 noon to 1pm

See overside for coming Assessment Events!