United College Action Network (U-CAN) founded in 1988 is a California 501© Nonprofit that provides leadership and assistance to students desiring to enroll in a Historically Black College or University (HBCU). Since 1988, U-CAN has provided services to more than 46,000 students. More than 12,000 of these students subsequently gained admission to a HBCU. U-CAN has generated over $45,000,000 in scholarship monies for students who received U-CAN services. U-CAN has an impressive twenty-four year track record that has created successful educational support, outreach, mentoring services, and programs nationwide. www.ucangotocollege.org "24 Years Proving...
